

Seminar with Toby Threadgill

Takamura-ha Shindo Yoshin Ryu Jujutsu

September 3–4, 2011

Saturday: 9-3 p.m. & Sunday: 11-3 p.m.

The SMU Martial Arts Dojo will be hosting a seminar on Koryu Bujutsu with Toby Threadgill of Takamura-ha Shindo Yoshin ryu.

The seminar will cover a variety of principles and techniques of the Shindo Yoshin ryu system including empty-handed work as well as weapons. This seminar is open for practitioners of all styles. Bokken and wooden Tanto are welcome.

Threadgill Sensei is one of only three people in the world to be awarded a menkyo kaiden (license of full transmission) in Takamura-ha Shindo Yoshin-ryu. He presently functions as the kaicho (administrative head) of the Takamura ha Shindo Yoshin Kai worldwide and overseas instruction at the Shindo Yoshin Kai Hombu Dojo in Evergreen, CO.

WHERE

SMU Campus, Dallas TX
Dedman Center for Lifetime Sports in the matt room on the first floor.

6000 Airline Road
Dallas, TX

<http://smu.edu/maps/>

COST

$70 for one day
$100 for both days

(SMU charges an entry fee for the facility of $10; they also require signing a waiver.)

Wait to pay for the seminar until you are in the Mat Room.

Cost does not include lunch. Restaurants are available within short driving distance.

RSVP/Ask Questions at smubudo@shinyokai.com or call Erica Bollon at 214-886-0623